Chapterhouse: Dune was the last Dune novel that Frank Herbert completed and published before his death in 1986. Though he had written notes and the series would continue with his son Brian Herbert and Kevin J. Anderson, most Dune fans regard the six Frank Herbert publications as the Original Series. After many books written since his death, pundits have stated that the only notes left is a ...

Chapterhouse: Dune. Chapterhouse continues the Heretics story without skipping a beat. No more thousand year time jumps, no more appendices of new characters, just space travel, no-ships, and Honored Matre hijinks. Speaking of those crazy Matres, they're turning into a real pain in the Bene Gesserit's side. For the first time in the series, the Bene Gesserit have a worthy foil. They have ...
